Re: CYBERsitter, LLC v. People's Republic of China, et al.
Central District Case No. CV 10-0038 GAF (SHx)

Dear Sir or Madam:

We have not yet received your response to our letter of January 14, 2010 requesting that as a defendant in the above-entitled action, you make arrangements with our offices for service of the complaint and summons in the above-entitled action. Accordingly, this letter is to give you notice, in accordance with Central District Local Rule 7-19.1, that my client, CYBERsitter, LLC ("CYBERsitter"), who is the plaintiff in the above-entitled action, intends to file an ex parte application this Friday, January 22, 2010, before the Honorable Gary A. Feess in the United States District Court for the Central District of California, courtroom 740 of the Roybal building, located at 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012. CYBERsitter's ex parte application will petition the Court to issue Letters Rogatory requesting the courts of Taiwan to order the service of process in accordance with Taiwan's internal law on the following defendants in the above-entitled action: ACER Incorporated, ASUSTeK Computer Inc., BenQ Corporation. According to Judge Feess's local local rule 5, "[a]n appearance is not generally required" for ex parte applications. Accordingly, we do not anticipate that there will be a hearing on the matter unless the Court orders a hearing to be held.

Please let me know as soon as possible whether you intend to appear and whether or not you intend to oppose the application. Please let feel free to contact me by email or call me directly at (310) 557-8838 to discuss this matter.

Very truly yours,

Gregory A. Fayer
